To: The Delaware County Election Board:

Formal Complaint

The Citizens of Delaware County for Property Tax Repeal hereby files with the Delaware County Election Board its Formal Complaint against The East Central Indiana Building Trades for the following described Indiana Election Law violation(s), to wit:

IC 3-9-3-2.5: On November 3, 2008, The East Central Indiana Building Trades sponsored and allegedly paid for and published in The Star Press newspaper of Muncie, Indiana an advertisement endorsing certain candidates in the General Election of Tuesday, November 4, 2008. A copy of said advertisement is attached as exhibit "A". IC 3-9-3-2.5(b) stipulates that a person that "makes an expenditure for the purpose of financing communications expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate…..must contain a disclaimer that appears and is presented in a clear and conspicuous manner to give the reader or observer adequate notice of the identity of persons who paid for and, when required, who authorized the communication…" IC 3-9-3-2.5(g)1-4 additionally stipulates certain other additional disclosures subject to the type of communication made pursuant to IC 3-9-3-2.5(b). The Citizens of Delaware County for Property Tax Repeal has reason to believe that the newspaper advertisement as sponsored by The East Central Indiana Building Trades and published in The Star Press on November 3, 2008, may, in fact, not have been paid for by "The East Central Indiana Building Trades" as the advertisement would have a reader to assume. If that, in fact, should be the case and as the advertisement as it appeared contained no other such required disclaimer(s), The East Central Indiana Building Trades has therefore violated IC 3-9-3-2.5(b) and IC 3-9-3-2.5(g)1-4.

IC 3-14-1-3: States; "An individual, an organization, or a committee that circulates or publishes material in an election without the statement required under IC 3-9-3-2.5 commits a Class A misdemeanor."

The East Central Indiana Building Trades has publicly stated that their organization is a Political Action Committee and by being so, should be intimately familiar with the Indiana Election Laws that govern their activities. The Citizens of Delaware County for Property Tax Repeal can find no record either locally or at the Indiana Secretary of State's Office of an entity known as "The East Central Indiana Building Trades", neither as a registered Political Action Committee or a registered Indiana Corporation. Therefore, the Citizens of Delaware County for Property Tax Repeal allege that The East Central Indiana Building Trades has willfully violated IC 3-9-3-2.5 and should be held to the statutory penalty as provided in IC 3-14-1-3. We request that the Delaware County Election Board forward this Formal Complaint to the Delaware County Prosecutor for the consideration of bringing the appropriate criminal charges against The East Central Indiana Building Trades for this violation.

Respectfully submitted,

We are unable to find that they are, in fact, a Political Action Committee.
Makes no difference relative to the complaint.

Chris Hiatt, President
Citizens of Delaware County for Property Tax Repeal

Sec. 2.5. (a) This section does not apply to any of the following:
(1) A communication relating to an election to a federal office.
(2) A communication relating to the outcome of a public question.
(3) A communication described by this section in a medium regulated by federal law to the extent that federal law regulates the appearance, content, or placement of the communication in the medium.
(4) Bumper stickers, pins, buttons, pens, and similar small items upon which the disclaimer required by this section cannot be conveniently printed.
(5) Skywriting, water towers, wearing apparel, or other means of displaying an advertisement on which the inclusion of a disclaimer would be impracticable.
(6) Checks, receipts, and similar items of minimal value that do not contain a political message and are used for purely administrative purposes.

(1) The name of the candidate involved appears.
(2) A photograph or drawing of the candidate appears.
(3) The identity of the candidate is apparent by unambiguous reference.

(d) A communication described in subsection (b) must contain a disclaimer that appears and is presented in a clear and conspicuous manner to give the reader or observer adequate notice of the identity of persons who paid for and, when required, who authorized the communication. A disclaimer does not comply with this section if the disclaimer is difficult to read or if the placement of the disclaimer is easily overlooked.

(e) A communication that would require a disclaimer if distributed separately must contain the required disclaimer if included in a package of materials.

(f) This subsection does not apply to a communication, such as a billboard, that contains only a front face. The disclaimer need not appear on the front or cover page of the communication if the disclaimer appears within the communication.

(g) Except as provided in subsection (h), a communication described in subsection (b) must satisfy one (1) of the following:

(1) If the communication is paid for and authorized by:
(A) a candidate;
(B) an authorized political committee of a candidate; or
(C) the committee's agents;
the communication must clearly state that the communication has been paid for by the authorized political committee.

(2) If the communication is paid for by other persons but authorized by:
(A) a candidate;
(B) an authorized political committee of a candidate; or
(C) the committee's agents;
the communication must clearly state that the communication is paid for by the other persons and authorized by the authorized political committee.

(3) If the communication is not authorized by:
(A) a candidate;
(B) an authorized political committee of a candidate; or
(C) the committee's agents;
the communication must clearly state the name of the person who paid for the communication and state that the communication is not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

(4) If the communication is a solicitation directed to the general public on behalf of a political committee that is not a candidate's committee, the solicitation must clearly state the full name of the person who paid for the communication.

(h) A communication by a regular party committee consisting of:

(1) a printed slate card, a sample ballot, or other printed listing of three (3) or more candidates for public office at an election;

(2) campaign materials such as handbills, brochures, posters, party tabloids or newsletters, and yard signs distributed by volunteers and used by the regular party committee in connection with volunteer activities on behalf of any nominee of the party; or

(3) materials distributed by volunteers as part of the regular party's voter registration or get-out-the-vote efforts;

must clearly state the name of the person who paid for the communication but is not required to state that the communication is authorized by any candidate or committee.
